Public Debate.

The public debate which was to be given tonight by the students of Bennett College, has, because of one of the debator's throat becoming sore, been postponed until Monday night, April 25th. The querry is: "Resolved, That all negroes should support the nominees of the republican party." Affirmative, W. R. Windsor and R. W. Wincher; negative, D. J. Gilmer and W. R. Page.

The debate will be held in St. Mathews M. E. church under the auspices of the literary department of that church. This is a question that admits of much argument and the debate promises to be warm and interesting. Nearly all the debators are members of the senior class of Bennett College and a good debate is expected.

Sunday School Rally.

The Sunday school of West Washington Street Baptist church is to have a general rally next Sunday morning. The object is to get a larger percentage of the church members into the school and to increase the attendance and efficiency of the school otherwise. A specially interesting program will be arranged, including a short speech by the noted evangelist, Rev. Thos. Needham. Everybody is invited to join the school on this occasion. None are too old to be regular members of a Sunday school.

RECOGNITION STRUCK OUT.

One Hundred and Seventy-Nine to One Hundred and Fifty-Nine.

NOW GOES BACK TO THE SENATE

Five Republicans Vote With The Democrats—Will The Senate Omit Recognition?

By wire to THE TELEGRAM.

Washington, April 18—An army of American citizens large enough to take Havana beseiged the house end of the capitol this morning. Never since the marble wing of the house was completed, twenty years ago, has such a crowd clamored for admittance. Speaker Reed has adopted special rules for this occasion, by which only twelve rows will be open to the public. The balance of the gallery will be reserved; each member of the house will receive two tickets. Men and women were gathered about the building at six o'clock this morning.

TO REMOVE RECOGNITION CLAUSE.

Washington, April 18—The members of congress were on hand early this morning in response to a special notice by Reed. The republicans are massing their forces to have the recognition clause of the resolutions struck out.

ADJOURNMENT TILL NOON.

Washington, April 18—Immediately after meeting congress adjourned until nooh without transacting any business.

HOUSE BEGINS VOTING.

Washington, April 18—The house, at 12:20, began voting on Congressman Dingley's motion to strike from the senate resolution the clause by which recognition is made of the Republic of Cuba.

Congressman Dingley's motion was carried. The house then voted for the senate resolution declaring that Spain must evacuate Cuba and that the president use the army and navy to accomplish this purpose. That the existing Cuban republic be not recognized. Carried.

SENATE AND HOUSE WILL AGREE.

Washington, April 18—Great applause by the democrats greeted the reading of the senate resolution. Representative Cooper, of Wisconsin, who visited the senate to learn the probability there, reported that in his opinion, the senate would accept the house resolutions with the recogntion omitted.

CONFERENCE IS NECESSARY.

Washington, April 18—It is now decided that the action of the house makes it improbable to avoid appointing a conference committee to agree to resolutions.

START FOR TAMPA.

New York, April 18—Companies B and F of the infantry, stationed at Governor's Island, have received orders and will start to Tampa immediately.

THE VOTE IN THE HOUSE.

Washington, April 18—Dingley's motion to concur in the senate amendment, striking out the recognition of Cuba was adopted by a vote of 179 to 155. The resolution as now amended is to go back to the senate. The probabilities are that the senate will accept the verdict of the house without any conference. The house completely surrundered its own resolutions. Five republicans voted with the democrats in favor of the recognition of the Cuban Republic.

Saturday Night at the Academy.

Faust, at the Academy of Music last Saturday night was the best attraction that has ever come to Greensboro. Mr. John Griffith, as Mephisto, proved himself worthy of the title of "one of the best in his line on the American stage." He showed himself the complete master of all the arts, devices and designs of the evil one and gave evidence of the devil's powerful influence over mankind.

Kathryn Purnell, as Marguerite, admirably sustained her part. The electrical effects used in the play were perfectly managed. The scene of hell was intensely horrifying.

The last scene, "The Apothosis," was perhaps the best. In the play of Faust a strong moral lesson is taught and one that is solemn in its intensity.

Manager Blackburn is to be congratulated on securing a play of such high character.

The next attraction will be Mr. James Young, May 4th and 5th.

SATURDAY'S BALL GAME.

In Which Guilford College Defeats Oak Ridge.

Correspondence Telegram.

Guilford College, April 16—The Guilford College base ball team met and defeated their rivals of old, the boys of Oak Ridge Institute, on the home ground this afternoon by the score of 9 to 7. No such excitement and enthusiasm as was manifested here this afternoon has been seen at Guilford for many years, and, considering the almost universal success which has attended the wearers of the red and blue, the victory is one concerning which the victors are unable to restrain a certain degree of pride. The remarkable large crowd of about four hundred witnessed the game and nearly every one expected a howling victory for Oak Ridge. Their record had given them a right to expect it. The Guilford boys scarcely knew what to expect, but were hoping to put up a stiff game. It is needless to say their hopes were abundantly fulfilled. The score tells the tale exactly.

The trouble with the visitors was they couldn't hit the Guilford pitcher. From the time they went to the bat only to return to the field without having touched a ball, until Morris, the plucky little Guilford catcher, squeezed the third strike which ended the battle, everyone felt that Petty was winning the game for old Guilford. He struck out 13, no man on the opposite team escaping this sad fate, while his opponent only vanquished 6. Besides the battery Jim Fox should be mentioned as having played a perfect game at 3rd base.

The Oak Ridge team deserves laudable mention. They work well together and surpass the Guilford boys in base-running. Their out-field is well nigh perfect. Bennett, the short stop, is a star player but became a little careless once or twice.

The game, although hotly contested, was marked by the utmost good feeling between the boys, which is very gratifying. Only one disputed point arose and after discussion it was peaceably left to the umpire.

The teams play at Oak Ridge two weeks hence and in case Oak Ridge wins the tie is to be played off in Greensboro.

Lucien Smith umpired the game and all his decisions were satisfactory.

The score by innings is:

Guilford	0	1	4	0	0	0	0	4	0	—9
Oak Ridge	0	1	0	0	0	4	0	2	0	—7

Base hits, Guilford 9; Oak Ridge, 7. Struck out by Malone, 6; Petty 13.

This paper is in receipt of a calendar gotten out by "Il Tabacco," a tobacco journal published in Rome. The calendar was sent us by Geo. P. Phillips, of the Southern Tobacconist, of Richmond, who received it from the pubisher in Rome. It is a handsome and artistic piece of work finished in gold and the rich brown color of mahogany leaf and contains about forty fac-similes of different brands of cigarettes. It has been given a place among the other calendars which adorn the walls of our sanctum.

AN IMPORTANT LETTER.

Written by the Late Dr. W. D. Whitney to Walter H. Page.

Among the great lights of modern science there is none more widely known than the late Dr. William Dwight Whitney, of Yale University. He was justly regarded as the highest authority (living or dead) on the subject of comparative philology. During the absence of Prof. R. L. Garner on his voyage to Africa, Mr. Walter H. Page, then editor of the Forum Magazine, wrote a letter of inquiry to Dr. Whitney to ascertain his views as to the merits and value of Prof. Garner's discoveries and the following letter in reply shows the high esteem in which he held them:

Sagaponack, L. I., N. Y.,
July 9th, 1892.

Walter. W. H. Page,

Dear Sir—In reply to yours of the 6th, forwarded hither by the first mail after its receipt:

I have seen some of Mr. Garner's papers, and have also had a little talk with himself, and am very much pleased both with what he has done and what he proposes to do. His observations are certainly of a very high degree of interest, scientifically as well as to the general public, and he has shown an ability in making them that is of a rare and high order; he may fairly be said to have a genius for this particular work. Even if he had a wrong idea of their relation to the problem of human language, I should think them wholly worthy of being prosecuted, and deserving of efficient aid. But I do not see that he has such wrong idea; he estimates their scientific place truly and fairly; and in all respects I can bid him go ahead, following out his own methods, and can wish him without reserve the best success and encourage those who have a disposition to aid him to do so. I am confident that very important result will follow from his labors.

Yours very truly,
W. D. Whitney.

COMING TO GREENSBORO.

An Excursion from Jonesboro, Saturday, April 30.

We notice that posters are being circulated advertising an excursion from Jonesboro to this city Saturday, April 30, under the management of Mr. C. H. Russell. The rates are low, the scheule convenient and a large crowd may be expected. The train will arrive here at 9:30 a. m. and leave about 6 p. m. on the return trip.

Mr. Russell says in his advertisement: "Greensboro is growing rapidly; new stores, new buildings, new goods. Go and see and you will feel better, think better of your country, your neighbors and your homes. It's refreshing to go to Greensboro; try it and be convineed."

Our merchants might lookout for this excursion and make it pleasant for the visitors. The Telegram circulates all the way from Greensboro to Jonesboro and you might also make a note of this. The way to sell goods is to place an advertisement before the people who expect to buy goods.

A Nuisance.

We have heard some complaint about goods boxes being piled on the sidewalks in some parts of the city to such an extent that pedestrians are almost forced into the street. In one or two instances ladies have had their dresses torn in trying to pass these barricades. Is their a law against this kind of thing? If there isn't there should be; and if there is it should be enforced.

The desire of the Don to find somebody to hold him is really very touching.

The conference on a joint resolution will probably bring into play some of the joints of the senatorial spinal column.

Whether we are to have fusion in this state or not it is beginning to appear that there will be no lack of effusion.

The slide on the Chilkoot Pass was nothing compared with the avalanche that will swat certain patriots and of the people along toward friends the fag end of this good year 1898.

The treatment of a baseball umpire in New York the other day by grand stand occupants shows that only an umpire of the quick fire variety will be able to enforce the new regulations.

May it not be that Chairman Caldwell's resignation got into the hands of Governor Russell in the same way that Father Worth's passes made the acquaintance of a cold and unsympathetic public?

The Wilkes county citizen who slashed his throat with a razor to keep out of the war, settled for all time the question as to whether there is more pleasure in the anticipation or in the actual possession.

The status of submarine cables in time of war is still very uncertain.—Philadelphia Record.

Our dear friends, the Spaniards, have demonstrated that the status of a submarine cable with a mine tied to the end of it is very uncertain in time of peace.

It was very patriotic in the Queen of Spain to give a million pesetas to the Spanish navy fund. It would not have been a bad idea, however, to have invested the sum in American bonds for the benefit of the heir to the throne when the atmosphere of Paris shall have become better for his health than that of Madrid.

The proposition made to the board of aldermen to put in a trolley system, together with a plant for lighting the streets and furnishing power for small manufactories, on the basis of a five year contract for street lighting at $67. per light annually, is one that, if made by a responsible party, should be of great benefit to the town. Of course a trolley system would not pay here at this time but a reasonable margin of profit would be made from the contract for lighting and that too without additional cost to the city. The trolley system would operate strongly to build up the city since it would render suburban lots readily accissable to the business part of the town. By all means let the contract be given if suitable guarantees may be had that it will be faithfully carried out by the promoter of the scheme.

The Herald has its eye already on a noble countenance, and as brave and true a heart as ever beat beneath this mortal flesh.—Twin-City Herald.

All of the talk about the loyalty of the south is a bit superfluous. This loyalty seems to come in the nature of a pleasant surprise to the people of the north. We have been aware of it in the south for some thirty years and may therefore be excused from slopping over at the present. Certainly the south is loyal. What therefore is the use in drinking toasts about the matter at this late day?

The Honorable Johannes Wanamaker, the erstwhile postmaster general, the pious squelcher of the Kreutzer Sonata, the psalmodic purifier of Pennsylvania politics proposes to raise and equip a regiment which he will lead to crush to the haugty Don. It is to be presumed that the regiment will be armed with yardsticks and scissors, and will be accompanied by the most expert of Mr. Wanamaker's ad writers. There will also come the opportunity for extending to the citizens of Havana the beneficience of a branch house of Mr. Wanamaker's establishment, together with all the unrivalled bargains that will be offered therein. Then the rear pages of La Lucha and La Union Constitucional will be adorned with full page ads and Sabbath schools will be established on all the corner lots. Meantime it is to be feared that the naughty Mr. Quay will hurry Pennsylvania politics to the bad.

SENATE RESOLUTIONS.

Full Text of the Measure With the Turpie Amendment.

Washington, April 16—The action of the Senate leaves the Cuban resolution in the following status:

The House heading, number and enacting clause, the Senate preamble resolution, the Turpie amendment and a fourth paragraph proposed by Senator Teller. In full it is as follows:

"Joint resolution for the recognition of the independence of the people and republic of Cuba, demanding that the government of Spain relinquish its authority and government in the island of Cuba, and to withdraw its land and naval forces from Cuba and Cuban waters, and directing the President of the United States to use the land and naval forces of the United States to carry these resolutions into effect.

"Whereas, The abhorent conditions which have existed for more than three years in the island of Cuba, so near our own borders, have shocked the moral sense of the people of the United States, have been a disgrace to Christian civilization, culminating, as they have in the destruction of a United States battleship, with two hundred and sixty-six of its officers and crew, while on a friendly visit in the harbor of Havana, and cannot longer be endured, as has been set forth by the President of the United States in his message to congress of April 11th, 1898, upon which the action of congress was invited; Therefore,

"Resolved, By the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in congress assembled,

"First—That the people of the island of Cuba are, and of right ought to be, free and independent, and that the United States government hereby recognizes the Republic of Cuba as the true and lawful government of the island.

"Second—That it is the duty of the United States to demand, and the government of the United States does hereby demand, that the government of Spain at once relinquish its authority and government in the island of Cuba and withdraw its land and naval forces from Cuba and Cuban waters.

"Third—That the president of the United States be, and he hereby is, directed and empowered to use the entire land and naval forces of the United States, and to call into the actual service of the United States the militia of the several states, to such an extent as may be necessary to carry these resolutions into effect.

"Fourth—That the United States hereby disclaim any disposition or intention to exercise sovereignty, jurisdiction or control over said island, except for the pacification thereof; and assert their determination when that is accomplished to leave the government and control of the island to its people."

More Mines Bought By Spain.

London, April 14—The firm of Siemens Bros., which is said to have supplied 40 ground mines and 40 buoyant mines of the Gibbins pattern to the Spanish government in 1896-97, were called upon today. The manager Mr. Sabine referred inquiries to the head of the submarine mining department, who said: "I must decline to say whether or not we supplied mines to the Spanish government. These are strictly confidential transactions, on which this firm can give no information to anybody."

This refusal to speak was in effect an admission, as it had already been discovered that the transaction had taken place.

Afraid of Burial Alive.

Scranton, Pa., April 16—Fearful that he would be buried alive, Walter Dawson, formerly of this city, who recently died in New York, made a provision in his will to guard against that possibility. In the testament, probated today, is the clause:

"I also wish my executors to have the doctor to cut the veins of my arms and other suitable places so that in case I am not dead when buried, if I afterward return to life and consciousness, that I may soon bleed to death."

Jefferson Davis Window.

Richmond, April 17—The Jefferson Davis memorial window was unveiled today, in St. Paul's cathedral, the church Mr. Davis attended while President of the Confederacy. There was an immense crowd present. The service was very simple, the sermon being preached by Rev. Dr. Wm. Dame, of Baltimore. Mrs. Davis, her granddaughter Miss Hayes, and Consul General Lee and family, accompanied by Miss Cisneros, attended the ceremonies.

Pope For Cuban Independence.

London, April 18—The Rome correspondent of the Times says: "In Vatican circles the opinion is still held that an outbreak of war may yet be prevented, and a rumor is afloat to the effect that the Pope is endeavoring to persuade Spain to recognize the independence of Cuba."

At the annual sale of Registered Jersey Cattle from Occoneechee Farm, April 7, 1898, I bought the thoroughbred Jersey Bull No. 3, Romola's chief, 41425 A J C C., sire Meridale Buffer 31346. Dam Romola of Beverly 47860. Romola is one of the best Cows at Occoneechee farms. Her dam was imported. Her grand dam was Ida of St. Lambert, who made 30 pounds butter in one week and milked 67 pounds in one day. The grand sire of Meridale Buffer is Ida's Rioter of St. Lambert. This is a great Bull, standing for years at the head of Miller Sibleys herd. Also carries the blood of Matilda 4th, 60 pounds milk in a day and 26 pounds butter in a week, Stoke Pogis and Stoke Pogis 3rd. Will stand at my stable near Finishing Mills.

Mrs. Joe Person:—Allow me to express my gratitude to you for the wonderful cure your Remedy made on my little daughter, some eight years ago. She was afflicted with some blood impurity which resulted in boils and sores on her head, face and neck, which troubled her severely and continuously for 18 months, more or less. After trying different remedies for a long time without any permanent relief, a friend advised me to try your medicine: After a short use of it she began to improve and when she had taken about eighteen bottles the sores and boils were entirely healed, there has never been any return of them, and she seems now to be entirely well. I consider your Remedy one of the very best blood purifiers on the market.
Yours very truly,

BOMBARDING OF COAST CITIES.

German Navy Officer Says That We Are in Danger.

Berlin, April 16—A high official of the German navy, in an interview, said to the correspondent:

"There is a possibility, nay, a probability, of the arrival of a Spanish fleet off New York, or some other northern harbor or harbors, and thus a bombardment must be considered. These harbors have just enough fortifications to permit their bombardment, under the existing international code. But against ironclads the fortifications would be found to be entirely too weak. The guns of the ironclads could easily bombard these cities from a distance of ten miles, while their armor cannot be pierced unless they are within a mile, and then only when the shot strikes at a right angle The bombardment of New York would create a financial panic which would react especially strongly on Hamburg and Bremen. Hence we are vitally interested."

The Attack Upon Us.

A sworn officer of the law, after hearing the evidence, said that Mr. Peddiford was an accomplice in the recent secret assault made upon us. Does the mayor and board of aldermen of the city of Winston intend that the retention in office of Mr. Peddiford shall be accepted as an endorsement of the attack that he and Scales made upon us?—Twin City Herald.

Another Search for Andree.

Stockholm, April 16—Prof. Stadling, who has been appointed to conduct the search for Prof. Andree, the balloonist, who started last year in an attempt to cross the Arctic regions in a balloon, has decined to proceed to the Klondike, owing, it is said, to the fact that geographers give credence to the report that Andree has been heard from in those latitudes. He will start April 21.

CAMILLA.

Strike your guitar, fair Camilla, and sing the wild song you are dreaming.
Let the lithe fingers fly swift o'er its strings, for your dark eyes are beaming—
Beaming with faraway fancies, Camilla, that plead for expression.
Only thy vibrant guitar is attuned for the sacred confession.

Now Camilla's fair fingers are plucking in rapture the pulsating strings,
And her faraway eyes are intent on the scene and the story she sings—
Singing her song of Felipe, her hero intrepid and true;
Singing his praise and recounting what deeds for her love he would do.

See the wild race after cattle, the broncho's wide nostrils blood red!
Hear the hello of the herder Felipe, who dashes ahead!
Hist, how the lariat sings as it flies o'er the horns of a steer!
See the wild plunge and the horse standing firm! Hear the bellow of fear!

Then, on the trail of Apaches, who leads the long marches by night?
Who but Felipe would dare to press on o'er the mesa to fight?
Who but Felipe sits firm in his saddle when rifles ring out in the dark?
Coolly he levels his weapon. The bullet flies true to its mark.

Such is the song sweet Camilla is singing with gaze far away;
Such is the song, for she knows not how long her Felipe will stay—
Knows not that lone in the waste of the sagebrush her master lies, slain.
Ah, sweet Camilla, thy songs for Felipe, the fearless, are vain!
—Charles A. Keeler in "The Land of Sunshine."

FERRYBOATS IN THE WAR.

A Veteran's Recollections of One He Saw at Fortress Monroe In 1861.

"It is curious," said a veteran soldier, "how some incident or circumstance may impart to a long familiar object to which we have never given any special thought a significance that makes it always thereafter an object of particular interest. The East river ferryboats impress me in that way now whenever I see one, and this was brought about simply by seeing one of them out of its accustomed waters amid strange scenes and put to strange uses.

"This was in the fall of 1861, in Hampton Roads. The regiment that I served in was aboard a transport there, waiting with other troops afloat there to go farther south under convoy of a fleet of war vessels. There was a great number of vessels there of all kinds, steamers and sailing vessels and warships, and they made an impressive show, but certainly the most striking of any one of them on its first appearance was an East river ferryboat, the Commodore Perry. I can see her at this minute as she looked then, moving across the waters of the Roads; she looked so utterly strange and curious there and amid such surroundings. But she went here and there with the most perfect confidence, constantly employed in transporting stores and troops and making herself quite as much at home there as she ever had been among the currents and eddies of the narrow East river.

"Other ferryboats were taken down there. A soldier friend of mine tells me that later, in the peninsular campaign, there was a New York ferryboat in those waters that was used as a gunboat, carrying two parrott guns, one at each end, mounted in the gangways, where the teams drive in and out. My own impression is that one or two of these boats went around Hatteras, into waters farther south; but, however that may be, I shall never forget the first time I saw the Commodore Perry at Fortress Monroe, and to this day I never go along South street without a feeling of the keenest personal interest for every ferryboat I see on the river."—New York Sun.

Stanley's Cat.

As the bonds of friendship are strengthened by a heavy affliction so does a prolonged sojourn in foreign places, amid strange scenes, turn the most common of everyday sights at home into luxuries. A magazine tells a story of Henry M. Stanley, who, after his return from Africa, was busily engaged in writing his story of the "Dark Continent."

He used to spread his reference maps upon the floor of his room, and on this particular day, after searching in his near neighborhood for a chart which he much needed, he spoke to his assistant, who presently descried it near the fireside, with Stanley's favorite cat upon it asleep.

He started to turn the intruder off, when the great man interrupted him, saying:

"Never mind; don't disturb the cat. I'll get along without the chart until the cat wakes up. If you only knew how good the sight of that domestic cat curled up in front of that bright English fire is to me, you would never chase her away."

The cat slumbered on, and not until she arose with a lazy yawn, scratching her front nails on the rug as she stretched, did the famous explorer reach for his map.

Asthma From Asparagus.

Among the curiosities of medical literature are the stories, many of them well authenticated, of the peculiar susceptibility of certain unfortunate individuals to certain odors and emanations. Among the substances which have been known to have produced attacks of spasmodic asthma are roses, musk, tea, ipecacuanha, the odor of a cat, fried fish, the dust of oats, malt, rice, feathers, wool and that caused in the demolition of old houses. Dr. Eugene Deschamps has added asparagus to this long list. He has published a full clinical report of a victualer over 40 years of age who suffers from severe spasmodic attacks of coughing whenever he attempts to prepare raw asparagus for the cook.—New York Herald.

Drew the Line.

"Couldn't take him at any price," said the agent who was buying horses for the use of the mounted police. "It is all right for a policeman to interfere whenever he sees fit, but it won't do for his horse."—Indianapolis Journal.

Greensboro's NEEDS and WANTS.

A first-class passenger depot, sufficient to accommodate the immense passenger traffic at this place.

***

A first-class and commodious market house where fresh meats can be handled and kept in a clean condition. The present market place is out of date, inadequate and comes far short of filling the demands of the public.

***

A city park—indispensable to the growth of the city.

***

An electric street car line—run in connection with arc and incandescent lights. This the city must have. It is coming to a size now that demands transportation from the residence to the business parts of the city. The car line will help the city to broaden and lengthen.

***

A complete system of sewerage. This is one of the most crying needs of the city. Every school boy knows that filth breeds disease. The filth and sewage should be carried away beyond the city limits. Underground sewerage and plenty of water is the only way to do this work.

***

A greater diversity in manufacturing enterprises. This has been often mentioned in these columns, but the oft-repeated statement is as true today as it was when we first made it.

***

A larger number of wholesale business houses. We have been making nice progress along this line, but there is room for more.

***

These are some of the things Greensboro needs and others will be mentioned in the future. It is well to think and talk of these things. The time is ripening for action. Let Greensboro get together—"united we stand"—and pull for these things and there will be no question as to results.

Did you ever hear of the Universal Food Chopper?

A few weeks ago a representative of the manufacturers gave an exhibit in our store. The variety of articles it would chop—the number of ways it would chop them—in short many accomplishments of the little untensil excited the wonder of all. The price, too, is wonderfully cheap, only $1.75. We will sell the chopper to any reliable person with the understanding that if it is not satisfactory it may be returned and the money will be refunded.
